

The oMi Scouts Manual
2011/12

Welcome to The oMi Scouts!

Lets go over some stuff!

Here are four important rules that must be followed while participating in The oMi Scouts (actually, these should probably be followed at all times. Seriously)

1. Don't do something so stupid that you kill or seriously harm yourself or someone else. (This includes eating or drinking to excess)
2. Laws are important! Don't break them.
3. If you are underage then you probably shouldn't do some of this stuff. If you live somewhere that requires you to have parental permission to join oMi Scouts, then you'll have to do that. (This goes along with Rule #2)
4. oMi Scouts is just for fun. IT'S NOT MY FAULT IF YOU DO SOMETHING YOU AREN'T SUPPOSED TO!
So don't go blaming me for stuff.

How this works:

1. Complete a task.
2. Write down what happened and, if possible, take a picture as proof.
3. Email your evidence and application form found at www.omionline.ca/scouts to omiscouts@omionline.ca
4. If Sarah, David, and I don't think you're full of shit, you earn a badge!
5. Your name (or user name if you're shy) will be proudly displayed with your achievements on the oMiOnline website!

Note: Requirements may be changed or clarified. Go to www.omionline.ca/scouts for more details.
